

Enough is Enough
Malachi 1:6-14
(June 2, 2013)

How should God be worshiped?

1) Worship God with honor 1:6-8

- 2 Sam. 12:10; Pro. 14:2; 1 Sam. 2:27-31
- Lev. 22:19-22; Deut. 15:21

2) Worship God with reverent fear 1:9-10

- Is. 1:11-15

3) Worship God with pure offerings 1:11-14

God deserves 100% of our best preparation and worship to honor Him.

- I honor God when I start to prepare for worship on Monday.
- Godly preparation focuses my attention on heaven, rather than on problems.
- My offerings to God must be pure and holy. Heb. 10:19-25

Message Based Discussion Questions

- 1) When and what were you taught about giving to God?

Digging Deeper:

- 2) Read Leviticus 22:17-24. What is God's standard for an offering (cf. 22:21)? _____ What were God's expectations regarding the sacrifices?
- 3) What did God expect from Eli and his sons (1 Sam. 2:12-17, 22-35)? _____ Who did Eli favor according to God? What promise did God make?
- 4) Read Psalm 51:16-17. What does God desire? _____ What does this passage and the previous questions say about God's desire for our heart related to sacrifices?
- 5) Does Hebrews 10:19-27 give room for casual preparation and worship? _____ How or in what way?

Making application of the message to life:

- 6) How well prepared do you need to be for Sunday worship? What kinds of things should be considered throughout the week?
- 7) How would you disciple a brand new Christian on how to prepare for worship?
 - I. Indifference to God's love 1
 - A. The Lord's love declared 1:1-5
 - B. The Lord's love despised 1:6-14
 - II. Indifference to God's law 2
 - A. The priest's violation of the law 2:1-9
 - B. The people's violation of home laws 2:10-17
 - III. Indifference to God's message 3
 - A. The coming judgment 3:1-6
 - B. The current judgment 3:7-15
 - C. The circle of faith 3:16-18
 - IV. Indifference to the Day of the Lord