

The Heart of a Rich Young Ruler
Mark 10:17-31
June 29, 2014

In order to effectively communicate the gospel in a way that reshapes lives to the likeness of Christ, we must challenge the idols of our culture and the idols of our heart.

- 1) Who is this rich ruler?

- 2) Who does the rich ruler think Jesus is? (10:17-18)

- 3) What's holding him back? Idolatry of the heart (10:19-20)
1 John 5:21

- 4) Idolatry is worshipping the wrong god (10:21-22)
Romans 1:22-25

- 5) Why do good things sometime become idols? (10:23-25)

The Heart of a Rich Young Ruler
Mark 10:17-31
June 29, 2014

In order to effectively communicate the gospel in a way that reshapes lives to the likeness of Christ, we must challenge the idols of our culture and the idols of our heart.

- 1) Who is this rich ruler?

- 2) Who does the rich ruler think Jesus is? (10:17-18)

- 3) What's holding him back? Idolatry of the heart (10:19-20)
1 John 5:21

- 4) Idolatry is worshipping the wrong god (10:21-22)
Romans 1:22-25

- 5) Why do good things sometime become idols? (10:23-25)

6) Jesus needs to be our treasure (10:26-31)
Matthew 6:21-24

7) We MUST DISCERN, EXPOSE, and allow God to
DESTROY our idols
Colossians 3:5
Ezekiel 14:1-6
Romans 1:16-17
Colossians 2:13-15

We have been called to go forth and make disciples of all nations. - Matthew 28:19-20

We were made to bear God's image and we can't effectively let our light shine when we are carrying idols. - Matthew 22:36-40

We are unable to fulfill the great commission by continuing to ignore the idols in our country, communities, churches, and
especially our very own lives.

Philippians 3:14

I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

6) Jesus needs to be our treasure (10:26-31)
Matthew 6:21-24

7) We MUST DISCERN, EXPOSE, and allow God to
DESTROY our idols
Colossians 3:5
Ezekiel 14:1-6
Romans 1:16-17
Colossians 2:13-15

We have been called to go forth and make disciples of all nations. - Matthew 28:19-20

We were made to bear God's image and we can't effectively let our light shine when we are carrying idols. - Matthew 22:36-40

We are unable to fulfill the great commission by continuing to ignore the idols in our country, communities, churches, and
especially our very own lives.

Philippians 3:14

I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.