Philemon 8-16

1. What did you like about this passage?
2. What did you find hard to accept or understand?
3. What does this passage teach about people?
4. What does this passage teach us about God? What does it teach about Jesus?
5. What will you do now? Based on this passage, how will your life change? How specifically are you going to live out today's lesson?
6. Who will you tell? With whom will you have a conversation about this passage?

Devotional Activity

After re-reading Philemon 8-16 through the lens of the Christian ethic of love, take a look at Romans 13:8-10 and Galatians 5:13-15. Either by journaling on your own or discussing with your family, try and answer the question, "What impact does the gospel have on established social boundaries and my life in particular?"

Memorize

"but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own accord."
