Philemon 17-25

1. What did you like about this passage?
2. What did you find hard to accept or understand?
3. What does this passage teach about people?
4. What does this passage teach us about God? What does it teach about Jesus?
5. What will you do now? Based on this passage, how will your life change? How specifically are you going to live out today's lesson?
6. Who will you tell? With whom will you have a conversation about this passage?

Devotional Activity

Write Philemon 25 on a post-it note. Turn to and read Romans chapter 5. Stick the post-it note somewhere on your page in Romans so that you can reflect on Philemon 25 as you read Romans 5. Do this a couple days thinking about what the grace of our Lord Jesus means to you and the world at large. Towards the end of the week share with someone in your family or the church what the grace of the Lord Jesus means to you.

Memorize

“If he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, charge that to my account.”
